PARENTS' RULES & REGULATIONS

ROLE OF THE APPLICANTS' PARENTS:

A child's religious and moral development is highly dependent on the environment that he or she is in, and on the observation of things happening around him or her. The first and foremost place for implementation and practice of whatever a child learns at Madrasah is at home.

If a child finds himself or herself in an environment where the moral principles of Islam are being violated or the child is discouraged from practicing on what he or she has learnt, then the child will become confused, and in many cases will disregard or view this as inferior, the beliefs and tenants of Islam.

In this way, without realising the consequences, we become the greatest obstacle and hinderance in the path of the religious and spiritual success of our children.

Each and every parent is humbly requested to consider and to observe the 'Code of Conduct' of the Madrasah, giving them the due consideration and value, they deserve, so that we are seen to be the protectors of faith by our children, and not its adversaries.

We hope and pray that you will recognise the importance of this issue and work with us to create a prosperous and religious future for our children.

We aim to 'revive the youths' deen, and to engender a greater understanding of Islam'.

PARENTS RULES & REGULATIONS:

- Acceptance and refusal of applications is the right of Al-Huda Academy.
- Disclosure of all previous conduct is necessary.
- All Islamic laws will have to be followed, particularly prayers, dress, and social affairs.
- Al-Huda Academy reserves the right to dismiss any student when deemed necessary without the right of appeal. Anyone dismissed from Al-Huda Academy will have no legal remedy against Al-Huda Academy.
- The parent or guardian will be responsible for any damage caused by the applicant to any property, buildings and premises owned or used by Al-Huda Academy.
- All applicants accepted at Al-Huda Academy will be initially on a two-month trial basis. The Academy reserves the right to extend this time or to dismiss the applicant after this period without reason.
