

EQUAL OPPORTUNITIES POLICY

"O mankind! We created you from a single (pair) of a male and a female, and made you in to nations and tribes, so that ye may know each other (not that ye may despise each other). Verily the most honoured of you in the sight of Allah is (he who is) the most righteous of you. And Allah has full knowledge and is well acquainted (with all things)".

(The Qur'an: 49:13)

RATIONALE

We at Al Huda Primary School recognise our responsibility to ensure positive attitudes to diversity and difference. Our school is committed to promoting fundamental British values and will ensure that not only every child is included and not disadvantaged, but also so that they learn from the earliest age to value diversity in others and grow up making a positive contribution to society. We are open to making reasonable adjustments to enable all to participate in our educational offer, where all are valued. We are committed to avoiding all forms of discrimination as set out in the UK Equality Act (2010).

This applies to all pupils, parents and staff members and includes inappropriate discrimination on the grounds of: gender: age; religion or belief; physical ability or disability; learning ability, other special educational needs or academic or sporting ability; race (including colour, nationality, ethnicity, belief, family, cultural or linguistic background); marital status and civil partnership; sex; sexual orientation; trade union membership; part-time and fixed-term working; gender reassignment; pregnancy and maternity.

We seek to ensure that the individual needs of all our pupils, including those who have special educational needs or have a disability are met and learners are included, valued and supported, and that reasonable adjustments are made for them. We undertake to work with the school community, with parents and with other relevant agencies to ensure that any form of discriminatory behaviour is treated seriously and action is taken to prevent any repetition.
